Dear Marianne,

This is not the end of knowing you, so I'll not even consider the thought! You are one of my favorite red heads — and that is my favorite kind of head, especially when it has so many fine things inside as yours does.

Marianne, we shall never forget the interest groups and whatever contributed to them. You have made the work much more interesting.

And who will ever forget "Spin, Dani"? and you, and the Dutchess, and all the others? Some of our favorite times have been when you and she stayed and talked or when just you came over to see us.

You are one of the real people we have had. We shall never forget you. This summer, some time, and whenever you are in Bristol, come to see us.

Be sure not to retire from the stage. You were a grand ~~Mercurio~~ — just think of the other good roles for you to do. Give them a chance, — and give us a chance to see you.

Sincerely yours,
C. Emmet Cooke

Dedicatio

Every girl takes with her from school the undying memory of some person who has meant much to her in her school life—some person who has commanded respect, admiration, and love. It is altogether fitting that an annual, one of the few visible ties of college life, be dedicated to Mrs. Grace H. Seay, our Dean of Women.

To all of us who have known and loved her well, Mrs. Seay is "Mumsie." This nickname symbolizes what she has been to us—a second Mother, an honest disciplinarian—firm, but not harsh, and sympathetic above all. By being always a leader rather than a dictator, "Mumsie" has made us strive toward high goals.

Because she has meant much to us, because she is truly symbolic of Virginia Intermont's high ideals, we, the Senior Class of 1943-44, respectfully dedicate our INTERMONT to "Mumsie."

In honor of

... those who fight and die that we might perpetuate this, our democratic way of life; those who suffer that we may continue our search for knowledge unhampered by any restraint other than our own frailty; those who give all that we may choose our friends, our careers, our pastimes and our pleasures. To those who serve now in order that we may prepare for a world of fellowship and peace in the future, we speak with honor.

"We who remain are but shells of your fullness,
It is we who should die and remember the cost,
Be brave, now, be free, and hate not too greatly
For immortal is man, and all is not lost."

DR. H. G. NOFFSINGER

President of the College

Thirty-two years ago this spring, your President set foot for the first time on the Intermont Campus. These years have seen many changes. The institution has grown from its modest beginnings to a position of leadership in the national family of Junior Colleges. Her graduates have gone to the four corners of the globe. Her students now come from many parts of our nation and from foreign countries. The size of the present student body is limited to the capacity of the school. There were fully a hundred who applied last summer too late to secure rooms. It can be easily seen that this condition means a carefully chosen student body. That is one reason for the success of the present session.

What of the future? As you Seniors go from her halls, you are interested in the success of your Alma Mater. You "love each brick and clinging vine." You can be counted upon to uphold the reputation of the school you love so dearly.

Those who remain behind to carry on will strive to maintain and even raise the standards, to strengthen the financial condition, to cherish the ideals, and lift to a higher plane the spiritual atmosphere of the College.

Students of session 1943-44, we here express our gratitude to a Benevolent Heavenly Father for His watch over you during your stay in Intermont. He has led us, one and all, along pleasant paths and through green pastures. As you go out to face the larger responsibilities of life, our best wishes and prayers shall follow you.

Dearest Murphy,

You'll never know how very much your friendship has meant to me. Honestly, honey,
I don't know how I'll get along next year without you! (When will I leave my books?)
This year has been wonderful, and it has been grand, mainly because of you. All the nights I've spent with you were loads of fun. And the talks I've had with you have helped me so much! In fact I think I've grown up a little more this year because of them. We sort of drifted apart after our sophomore year — but ~~but~~ <sup>certainly</sup> I hope it will never happen again. You'll always be one of my best friends, and even though you will be away from Bristol and V.I.
next year I'll be seeing you in all the old familiar places. (You had better write). In fact I'll take out five minutes every day during my study period just to miss you! But seriously, dearling, I hope you can read this, you have been

to me. through some belong

just grand.

I could never have got this year without you. I'm
I was such a wonderful (at the first of school especially) knowing that I had a true friend here, and one I could always count on. Here wishing you loads of success and happiness next t h e

year and every year. I know you'll succeed;
 you really have lots of dramatic talent and I hope you'll use it. Honey, never forget "Honey and

"Juliet"... "The last time I saw Paris, her heart was young and gay..." (How could you forget that!) But wasn't it fun? Bowling. Love's looking forward to more good times and lots of fun. (Can I come to your wedding?) Together.

JUNIOR CLASS

We, the Junior Class, proudly give you the following guiding lights:

Our capable president, Pat Cherry, possessed a vibrant manner, and everywhere that charming Pat went, this admirable trait was sure to go.

Assisting Pat was brown-eyed Connie Merrill, who was rightly named secretary of our class, with tall, slender Joan Lawler, the gal with the dramatic ability, as vice-president. Striking black haired Charlotte Black deserves credit as treasurer of our class and also as the New York Times representative.

It's unanimous that we toss the proverbial bouquet to our class sponsor, Miss Carter, for her untiring efforts and helpful ideas.

Ah! The Juniors have athletic ability. To the girls of good sportsmanship and athletic prowess, we give a rousing cheer to All-American "Sis" Van Dyke, who captained the victorious Junior team, Carol Raynor, Pat Cherry, Betty Hughes, Ann Groner, "B. J." Grose and Ellen Bane Williams who was also manager of the Varsity team.

"So Proudly We Hail" Bonnie Norman, whose intellectual fire will never burn out; Bonnie had an active interest in the Y. W. A. also.

Basketballing, piano-playing, Fran Sutherberry can easily boast of duties well performed and days well spent.

Ladies of cheer, arouse our pep and good spirit! The walls of the gym re-echo many praises to Ginny Lueddeke, Fran Smothers, Bebe Stokes and Darlene Strong for leading the green and white to victory!

Intermont has its Eleanor Holms—with Ethel Laughlin gracefully churning the waters, and Jane Talley, the blonde version, who was assistant swimming instructor.

Ann Lucius, everybody's favorite, handled the song contest with her usual ease and skill.

"Artists and Models" . . . the "artists of the class and wielders of those crafty paint brushes" are none other than Myra Hamilton and Jo Alexander; the girls who are pretty enough to be the "models" are Lou Burrell, Anne Chandler, Lorraine La Tourette, Nikki Stansbury, Lola LeGette and Carolyn Van Ness.

Leaning up against the stable gate are the two horse-lovers we know as Chris Economos and "Bobbie" Wolfer.

Leaps 'n' bounds, cheers and whistling, friendliness and tireless energy, mixed together give us, athletic, "B. J." Grose.

Watch those reprimands! Tolerant "Kaky" Hoge, Priscilla Jordan, "Beazy" Cohn and "Liz" Barnes were Student Government electees this year, with reliable Marguerite "Geet" Hall as Secretary.

Melodious Edith Walker and her accordion made soothing music for our ears, while vocally, wee "Midge" Maguire contributed some fancy notes.

In the world of footlights and grease paint, the symbol of the mask and wig proudly presents Trudy Tuzik, Jean Redmond, Martee Humphreys, Elaine Williams, and Marianne Hayworth as the rivals of Sarah Bernhardt.

A versatile gal and leader has been Janet Jackson, a champion swimmer, member of the Varsity Team, Junior Editor of the Annual, and a great girl!

To the Juniors, let us always remember that "Education is the best defense of Democracy."

Finally, the staff wishes to recognize its Junior Editor, Janet Jackson, whose cooperation and intriguing personality have made her an outstanding leader. Her admirable character, and spectacular sports participation have greatly enhanced her class's "On to Victory" slogan.

Dearest Murray,

much. I'll never forget Xmas when I visited you.
I did enjoy it tremendously - but what would I have done without you? I advise me in some of my serious (or) steps that I don't know!
Anyway - I'm still waiting for you to come to W.S.
to see me just anytime you will - I've loved

HIGH SCHOOL

Among the high school students who will rise to greater heights in the America of tomorrow, we recognize:

Valentina Sobalvarro, the president of the high school, whose faithful words and patience have guided us through another year.

A song in the hall, a broad smile, and a gay patter of words—Dot Jarvis, the all-round president of the Senior Class.

A finishing touch of rare beauty is added with the appearance of charming—Barbara Weir.

For the latest styles we can always depend on Norma Jean Davis, Mary Alice Newton, Shelia Currier, and Nancy Kertz.

Did someone say Brewer? Ada—no doubt. The collegiate gal with plenty of pep and school spirit.

One gal we'll never forget is Kitty Clark with her dramatic ability, we all know she well deserves the title of "most dependable."

We can hold our place in the scholastic world as long as we have gals like Katie Cook (Student Government Representative) and Dorothy Brevoort.

Our basket-ball team went forth to battle led by Eleanor "Smitty" Smith, captain; Mickey Hickman, manager; and supported by Val Sobalvarro, Martha Conley, Pat Williams, Helen Caudill, Betty Ervin, Ada Brewer, Fran Massey, Margie Foster, Lou Coyner, Peg Hoak, and "Bobbie" Cousins.

Yvonne Beer brings glory to the high school when she lifts her violin to her chin and lightly brings the bow across the strings to produce superb music.

Barbara Goode has contributed to the high school a contagious giggle and a world of wit.

Among our beauties we have Ann Johnson, Margie Foster, Fran Massey, Lou Coyner, "Honey" Herr, and our Spanish beauty, Carmen Pullen.

Sally Schoeffel and witty Jackie Curthoys, along with Jerry Karner rank tops among V. I.'s horsewomen.

And when you are looking for a poet or a musician, how about Nancy Littman, "Bobbie" Cousins, Lou Coyner, Peg Hoak, and Dot Jarvis?

P.S. - Don't forget to write me at least one letter from S.C.!

STUDENTS

These are the representative Bristolians who, as true Inter-monters, have done much to strengthen the bond between the day students, the boarding students, and Bristol. This year has found more and more boarding students strolling down to visit the Day Students' Cottage, while in equal proportion the day students "dragged it up" to the dormitories.

A Christmas party, Peanut Week, all-night parties in the dorms, bridge games, and big "bull" sessions all helped to make the day students' year fun.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council serves as a link, a mediator, between the students and the faculty. Administration rules would mean very little without student cooperation. The goal of this representative body is to attain the highest peak of faculty-student cooperation.

Our council's primary aim this year has been to promote better spirit and activity on the campus and to encourage in each girl the fulfillment of the Intermont ideals.

The Cauldron goes to press! About twice a month Editor Eatherly leads her staff through a mad scramble to get the story, get it first, and get it right. Communiques come pouring in to be carefully censored, revised, and passed on. This product is then put in the hands of the Wytheville Publishing Company, and from there it comes back a finished paper. We join forces to salute this activity, its editors and entire staff, for their outstanding service to our school.

B. S. U.

Among the newer college clubs, the Baptist Student Union has proved very valuable as it has filled the need for a strong organization for every student on the campus. It has maintained a balanced, progressive plan of activities under President Bette Henritze.

The B. S. U. has a two-fold emphasis: increased church loyalty and personal spiritual development for every girl at V. I. through church membership, Christian comradeship, Bible study, and maximum Christianity.

Two highlights of this organization's many activities have been Vocational Guidance Week under the direction of Mr. Curtis Gentry of Knoxville, Tenn., and Religious Emphasis Week, conducted by Dr. J. P. Allen of Bristol, Va. In addition, the council has provided many speakers for chapel and vesper programs.

Y. W. C. A.

The activities of the Y. W. C. A. are social as well as religious. The Social Committee sponsors campus events of all kinds: teas, birthday dinners, Peanut Week, pajama parties, campus sings, and the Hallowe'en Carnival. Interest groups include art, drama, music, poetry, dancing, and games. Every other Wednesday night a program of interest to all students is sponsored by this organization.

Off campus, the program consists of parties for and donations to the Janie Hammitt Home for underprivileged children, entertainment for the ladies of the Katie J. Lockett Home, contributions to the Student War Fund, entertainment for service men and participation in the War Bond drives and Red Cross work.

"A Christian atmosphere to permeate this campus" is one of the goals of the Y. W. C. A. — Christianity in the sense of respect and loyalty for teachers, classmates, friends, and, most important, one Supreme Being, God.

EXECUTIVE WAR COUNCIL

The War Council was organized in October, 1942, for the purpose of encouraging all Intermont students and faculty members to do their part in furthering the war effort.

In September, 1943, an executive council was appointed to map out the work of the year. This council is made up of representatives of the faculty and of the student body. This year the council has planned various drives, including the U. S. O., the Red Cross, the Third and Fourth War Loan drives, and a series of interesting and timely chapel programs. An important feature of the program this year has been a series of news broadcasts by our radio announcer, Pat Branch.

The activities and excellent horsemanship promoted by the Boots and Saddle Club, largest club on the campus, have been recognized both in Virginia and nationally. Activities included breakfast rides, the largest college horseshow in this section, lectures by well-known horsemen, and a trip to Lexington, Kentucky, heart of the bluegrass section. The success of this club, under the leadership of its officers and instructor, has not only promoted the equitation department, but made it an outstanding campus organization.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Under the efficient guidance of Miss Miller, these girls have learned how to solve the problem of wartime rationing and the art of successful homemaking. The Home Economics Club provides many delightful hours for the domestically inclined V. I. girls.

Although war conditions have somewhat altered the social calendar, Intermont can express thanks to the Social Committee for sponsoring many enjoyable dances. With the help of Mrs. Seay, whose interest is always the pleasure of the girls, the committee has given Intermonters many pleasant hours.

SURGICAL DRESSINGS

Each Saturday afternoon a group of war conscious Intermonsters gave up their usual recreation time to roll bandages at the Red Cross Center. We are proud of these girls' efforts and, small though their contribution may be, we think it's the little things that add up to the grand total—VICTORY!

The orchestra is another of the musical organizations which furnish entertainment and education for its members and the student body. The program of the "Kerrmites" for the year included the Christmas concert, a tea for the student body in East Hall Parlor, Tuesday and Thursday serenades for 3rd West, and several local programs.

AIR RAID WARDENS

On their toes—these air raid wardens ready to surprise “Der Fuehrer” in the alacrity with which V. I.’s lights could be extinguished in case of emergency!

Various degrees of darkness were these girls’ specialty. From black outs—dim outs—brown outs to fading completely out of the picture when V. I. was notified that it was no longer in a restricted area. But all Intermont rests assured that if ever Schikelgruber makes the grave error of getting this far into the Virginia mountains, he’ll have a hard time finding our “second mother dear.” These girls will be on hand to cloak “her” in darkness in no time!

The Virginia Intermont Glee Club, numbering forty-five voices, has had a full year of varied activities. Under the direction of Mrs. S. T. Schroetter, the Glee Club developed a repertoire including all types of music. The Glee Club contributed much of its time to the war effort when, during the month of December, a Victory Concert was given on tour at several army camps in Virginia and North Carolina. The club has also been extremely active in community and civic activities.

The Nu chapter of Phi Theta, national honor society for junior colleges, established in 1927 at Intermont, is under the leadership of Miss Marguerite Pflug, the present sponsor. This chapter was the first in Virginia, and one of the first in the East.

A high standard of achievement in a literary course is the chief membership requirement. Phi Theta endeavors to promote on the campus the highest ideals of scholarship.

CLUB PRESIDENTS

Every successful organization must have competent leaders—and to the presidents of our V. I. clubs, we here give a written note of thanks. They have worked hard and deserve much credit for making our clubs outstanding and appreciated.

Dearest "Murphy,"

I'm writing on the page with my feature picture:
Excellent likeness - or don't you think so?

Foolishness aside - it's been swell. Those are age old words, but I mean it and I think you know what lies behind the common, every-day phrases, I might put down in your annual.

The visits back and forth - the poetry exchanged - the prayer-meets - the birthday party - And so much more.

It's been wonderful - and so are you.

I'll miss you,
believe it or not.
Come back - I'll be waitin' for you. Come in and Call for -
Jan

ATHLETICS

---

+ TENNIS + BASKET-BALL +

FENCING + +

Basketball and riding hold first place in popularity among the girls. Inter-scholastic competition as well as sportsmanship and good clean fun aid in making the basketball season a hilarious event. Adventurous trail rides in the Virginia mountains throughout the year plus the traditional spring horse show are the principal highlights of the equitation department.

Spring lures many of the girls out of doors; and fencing, tennis, baseball, archery, track, badminton, and swimming round out a complete game schedule.

RIDING + SWIMMING + +

V. I. is proud of her athletic program which has put starch into the feminine frills. It took a stiff upper lip to master the '43-'44 sports, but the joints and muscles were really flexible, ready, and willing when the fun was over.

CABLE ADDRESS

JANUARY 15, 1944

Miss Patricia Branch,
Editor-in-Chief
The 1944 Interment College
Virginia Interment College
Bristol, Virginia

Dear Miss Branch:

Inclosed are the pictures I limited to me for judging. You will note that they have been marked "A", "B", and so on. "A" being the winner,
"B" the runner-up, etc.

As I said, I am fast judging these girls, and selecting the winner from this group of lovelies is one of the most difficult jobs I have had to do in quite some time. I have trust my selection will meet with your approval.

Once again, thank you for loaning me with the friendship of this contest.

Very truly yours,

Marianna Whittaker – MAY QUEEN

MARIANNA WHITTAKER . . . . . May Queen
 GWENDOLYN BATEMAN . . . . . Maid of Honor

In electing V. I.'s May Queen, the highest and most critical, and careful choice is made by the student body. Only the queenliest young women, beautiful in face, body and mind are ever extended this highest social honor of our campus, and Marianna Whittaker is the personification of all these—and more. A more lovely, gracious, and charming Queen could not have been chosen. We are proud of our "First Lady" and would wish that her life's throne may always be as beautiful as her May Day one.

The same discriminating taste is displayed in choosing the Maid-of-Honor, and a lovely companion for the Queen is sparkling, vivacious Gwen Bateman.

TORCHBEARERS

This year the V. I. faculty has selected ten girls who in their opinion are the most outstanding leaders in the school, and are the ones who have most nearly been representative of the highest ideals and standards of the college.

These girls—our torchbearers—will carry high the Intermont torch in the future as they are doing now.

A Vote of Thanks

We of the INTERMONT staff feel that our yearbook could not be complete without an acknowledgment of gratitude to the "unsung heroes" of V. I. — those people who have devoted their time and energies to Intermont without receiving due credit, and so we extend a vote of thanks . . . .

To Mr. Scott, our night watchman, who has done his job faithfully and well, and who has become our sympathetic and helpful friend "Scotty."

To Mr. Roberts, engineer, whose worries and duties have been increased by our little notes in the "engineer's box." His willingness to help has perhaps gone unnoticed, and so we include him in our vote of thanks.

To Walter Young, of the V. I. kitchen, whose quiet, gentlemanly nature and efficiency have commanded the admiration and respect of all the girls who know him. We wish also to acknowledge our appreciation of Walter's poetry. Acquaintance with his poems, whether philosophical or humorous, has meant a great deal to the V. I. girls.

To Peyton and Ed, who, because of war conditions, have had to do, alone, a job which could well have occupied the time of several men. They have won our appreciation by staying on the job where they were so badly needed.

You'll never know how much I'll miss that lovely red head next year. It doesn't seem right and I hate to think of you're being gone. Anyway have a blast time doing marvelous things and then come to see us and tell us all about them.*

VIRGINIA

Dear Murphy.

Words can't express the way I feel about you. It always is hard to say what I want to - (no contractions please) I miss the way we talked and I miss around school. I was worth coming to U. I. to be with you this year and I sure hope I'll be with you again sometime soon - I'm in Bristol then maybe in New York I know - maybe you'll have me as a patient. If I don't even pass math I know you will. All this mottin 'I'm doin' and I mean every word of it. Please be a real good doctor and also when you are forty and have redheaded triplets I want you to pay off that bet. I enjoyed being in 408 as a day student and also at night when I should've been on fourth in my own bedroom.
Please every so often write me.
How bout it. I love you very much.

Murray —

It's hard for me to tell you the things in my heart, but I must — It's so long for awhile — I want you to go on and be that psychiatrist — you earn. I'll admit you have lots of talent in Dramatics, but I think you know people. Where your heart leads — follow. I've been a rather trying roommate — but I've loved you just as much as anyone. I don't like to say good bye — I wish you all the best in the future + always — Be good — Keep that head high "Red" — I'll see you again — So long — for now — It's been swell fun — don't forget any of it — our Red. Emphasis week + the fun we had — Margah, my smart Red Head — missing you — always — Bothe (Henriette)
